

Faculty Development Orientation

■ Personnel Resources

– Dr. Steve Davis, Director (OU)

✓ daviss2@ohio.edu, 740-593-2190

– Dr. Olivia Sheehan, Coordinator (Appalachian Behavioral Healthcare, Athens OH)

✓ sheehan@ohio.edu, 740-594-8302, x4007

– Dr. Robbin Kirkland, Coordinator (Doctors Hospital, Columbus OH)

✓ kirkland@ohio.edu, 614-297-4130

Faculty Development Orientation

■ Mission

– The Office of Faculty Development serves the College and CORE in Faculty and Curriculum Development.

- ✓ Faculty Development: Facilitate the improvement of teaching and facilitation knowledge and skills.
- ✓ Curriculum Development: Provide leadership and consultation in curriculum development.

Faculty Development Orientation

- Partial List of Assistance Areas:
 - Clinical teaching and facilitation skills
 - Conducting a journal club
 - Leadership skills (power and authority, ethics...)
 - Communication skills (writing, speaking, presentations)
 - Management skills (projects, time, self, goal setting...)
 - Productivity tools (Power Point, Response System...)
 - Group work (dynamics, team building, meetings...)
 - On line lessons and tips

Faculty Development Orientation

- All our materials are adaptable to group, one-to-one, and self-instruction
- Most materials and references are maintained on our faculty development web site:

www.oucom.ohiou.eud/fd/

Faculty Development Orientation

- We exist to serve you and we specialize in addressing your specific learning needs.
- Visit our web site
- Contact us for consultation, workshops, presentations, and additional resources.
- Plan to systematically develop your teaching and facilitating skills—work your plan.

Faculty Development Orientation

END

